Masters Peyton, Richard and Robert Tucker of India were guests at Ted Powell's picnic party on Wednesday.

A "Grape Arbor Picnic" was held at Sumac Lodge on Tuesday. After the lunch was eaten, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Tucker of India who are at Hermit Cottage gave interesting talks on their work in Santiniketan, the school founded by Tagore, where Mr. Tucker teaches English and Bible. Afterward the singing by the Tucker children, and later by all present led by Mrs. C. A. Field.

The guests were as follows:— Mrs. W. H. DeJardins, Mr. N. L. Allen, Miss Lila Featherstone, Mrs. N. Fay Smith, Miss Elizabeth Putnam, Miss A. De LaMeter, Miss T. Simar, Mr. George Smith, Miss Edith Purple, Misses Pettigill, Mrs. M. H. Snow, Miss Margaret Hall, Mrs. C. A. Field, Mrs. C. Martindale, Mrs. Herbert Bruce, Mrs. Harry Doremus, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Tucker and children, Betty, Peyton, Richard and Robert. It was voted a most delightful affair by all present. "The ornaments of a house are the friends who visit it," was declared by the hostess, Mrs. C. R. LaBella.

Mrs. W. H. DeJardins is entertaining her brother Mr. Nelson Lord Allen of Melrose, at Rocksmoke. Her son John is expected to arrive from Miami Beach, Florida this week.

Misses E. Putnam and A. De LaMeter of New York are guests of Miss Julia White.

Miss Margaret Hall of Brooklyn N. Y. is the guest of Miss Simar.

Last Thursday around 3 P. M. the neighbors saw smoke pouring from the former S. W. Bailey

Recital and Pageant

The social evening at the Trinitarian Church last Monday proved a great success. About 250 partook of supper. Upwards of 300 attended the Recital that followed in the church auditorium. Mr. A. M. Carapetian of Boston, who has a summer engagement at the Northfield, was highly appreciated in his rendition of two selections on the violin. Miss Viva Fay Richardson of Mount Holyoke College music faculty always delights her Northfield friends with her piano performances. Mr. Albert Raymond of Boston was heard with great acceptance in baritone solos. Miss Helen Symonds of Worcester North High School may be claimed as local talent, and pleased her auditors with several recitations of a high order of merit. Mr. Carson L'Hommiedieu repeated his usual able accompaniment on the piano. All the pieces received hearty and generous applause.

The brief pageant, "Wedding Bells," was an agreeable novelty. It was an exhibition of wedding dresses, dating from 68 years ago to the present time, thus showing the different styles of the passing years and of the localities where they were made. Each "bride" walked up the south aisle to the subdued music of the wedding March, and after a pause in front of the platform retired by the north aisle. The list was as follows:

1. Mrs. Frank Montague wore the brown silk wedding dress in which her mother, Mrs. Henry Montague, was married in 1866. Both dress and bonnet to match were made in Northfield.

2. Mrs. A. H. Mattoon wore the dress in which she was married in 1879.

3. Mrs. E. F. Howard's wedding dress of the year 1889 was exhibited by her daughter Elizabeth.

4. Mrs. A. P. Pitt's dress, which she wore in 1894 at the first wedding that took place in the church, was worn by her daughter Emma who herself was married in 1917 in this dress to Lieut. Edward M. Powell, in the first wedding that took place in Sage Chapel.

5. Mrs. Martin E. Vorce's dress, used in 1895, was exhibited by her daughter Helen.

6. Mrs. W. E. Hoehn appeared in the dress she wore at her own wedding in 1898.

7. The dress worn by Mrs. Joseph Colton at her wedding in 1899, and also worn by her daughter, was exhibited by Priscilla Colton.

8. Mrs. W. Stanley Carne's wedding dress, 1914, was exhibited by her daughter Harlene.

9. The dress worn by Mrs. A. Gordon Moody at her wedding in 1926 was exhibited by Miss Elizabeth Palam.

10. Mrs. Edgar J. Livingston wore the wedding dress she used in 1929.

11. The latest thing in Northfield wedding dresses, namely the dress worn by Miss Dorothy Johnson (Mr. Harold G. Young) at her pretty home wedding three weeks ago, was exhibited by Mrs. Walter Hyde.

12. The wedding costume of a Christiana native woman of Congo Belge, Africa, supplied by Mrs. McDiarmid, was worn by Miss Blanche Lorer, forming a contrast to that preceded. This concludes the pageant.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Sunday School at the Trinitarian Church has three classes of eight to ten scholars each every Sunday. Miss Dorothy Wright takes the kindergarten, Lawrence Marcy Junior girls, and A. P. Pitt the boys. School meets at 9:30, and is dismissed at 10:15. Visitors, young and old, are invited.

Garden Club

14 members of the Winchendon Garden Club, visited gardens in Northfield Wednesday, July 11th. Miss Blanche Corser, Secretary for the Northfield Club, acted as hostess at the request of the Hotel Northfield. After a delicious luncheon at the Hotel and a concert in the Hotel parlors, the party, accompanied by Mrs. Gordon Moody and Miss Corser, visited the Chateau and Hotel gardens, the Chateau itself, and the lovely sunken garden of Mr. Clyde Mattern across the way. Then going back for cars, they went on to the Birthplace, where they were charmed, not alone by the wonderful view, but by the opportunity of seeing the house itself.

Mrs. Colton's gorgeous poppies came in for their share of attention, then on to Mrs. Lawrence Laselle's and Mrs. Raymond's where a surprise of cookies and cold drinks awaited them.

It was a matter of keen regret, that it was possible to only halt the cars for a moment to see from the road, one of the most charming gardens in Northfield, that of Dr. and Mrs. Wright. Indeed only two other gardens were visited, and those by but four members of the party as it was so late in the day.

A long list of good things had to be passed up through lack of time. But those who remained for the brief visit to Mrs. Martin Vorce's and the garden of Joseph Field, thought it well worth the added delay.

The entire group voted it one of the most perfect days in their lives, from the very satisfying luncheon at the Northfield, to the last garden visited. A most cordial invitation was extended to the Northfield Club, to visit Winchendon in the near future.

The regular meeting of the Garden Club, was held last Tuesday evening with Dr. and Mrs. Wright. 68 were present. The picnic supper of box lunches augmented by soft drinks and poppies was eaten among the flowers in the beautifully kept garden.

After a short business meeting, in which the plans to date, for the Flower Show were given out, the meeting adjourned and the members sallied forth to visit other nearby gardens. The pool and rock garden at Mrs. Glutney's, Mrs. Sauter's garden, and last, the Mattern garden in Highland Ave., were each visited before it became too dark to see.

These garden visitations are an important part of the club activities. They bring us closer together in a way. They show us new sides to our friends and neighbors that we were not aware of before. For a garden is after all but the expression of an ideal. Just a bit of the hidden beauty of soul, that lies buried deep in the heart of each of us.

The public is cordially invited to this free presentation.

The Hour of Music is sponsored by The Northfield Schools, and the program will include selections appropriate to the day.

Mount Hermon School is on Route 10, between Barnardston and Northfield. Look for the sign at the entrance gates.

People's Forum

July 16, 1934
Editor, Northfield Herald:

Sir:—I would suggest that every voter in Northfield read thoughtfully your sound editorial of the 13th, inst., and then decide if they wish to return to Boston as their misrepresentative a man who voted against allowing the people an opportunity to express their preference for bi-annual sessions of the legislature.

The members of the last General Court which the Boston Herald characterized as one of the worst in the history of the state knew full well what the verdict of the people would be regarding the huge and utterly useless expense of annual sessions, and they were determined that the people should have no chance to express an opinion, and Fred B. Dole was one of the voters against the bill.

Boys Have A Picnic

On Wednesday 18 boys had a grand picnic on Huckle Hill. Ted Powell was major domo. They left Green Pastures at 2:30, and did n't get back till after 8 o'clock. A hotel bus furnished transportation,
and they drove home by the Bernardston and Vernon roads.
For games they played baseball,
hide-and-seek among the bushes,
shoe scramble, and other races.
Supper included hot dogs, tonics,
milk, watermelon, etc. Murray Pallam won first prize in the peanut hunt, and Jack Powell the booby prize.

The picnic was chaperoned by
Mr. and Mrs. Pitt, Mrs. E. M.
Powell, Mrs. Fred Pallam, Mrs.
Duncan, and Mrs. George Loew.
Rainier Whitney was the chef.

The boys in the party were Ted,
Jack and David Powell, Jimmie Krause, Glen Giebel, Donald and Robert Duncan, Kenneth and Norman Bolton, Murray Pallam, Stanley Johnson, Lloyd Carne, Jack Polhemus, Gordon Loew, Richard Barrows, Payton, Richard and

IN SIX MONTHS

A record breaking demand has sent Chevrolet production to its highest total in four years.

Since January 1st, Chevrolet has produced more than half a million cars and trucks. This tremendous total has broken all Chevrolet records for the last four years. And here is the reason behind it: No other manufacturer has so much to offer as Chevrolet. Chevrolet is the only low priced car with patented
Knee Action, and only patented Knee Action gives you shock-proof steering combined with the new jolt-proof gliding ride.
Chevrolet alone in its field provides Fisher Bodies, cable-controlled brakes, Y-K frame, and a dozen and one other important features. Do you wonder that the trend is to Chevrolet?

GOSH, WHAT NEXT?

LEGISLATION introduced in Congress and several state legislatures is designed to require the blending of alcohol made from domestic farm crops with gasoline
motor fuel. These bills, if passed, would impose heavy taxes upon gasoline unless it be blended with 2% to 10% alcohol.
Imagine diluting gasoline selling for 50 a gallon, at the refineries, with an inferior fuel costing five times as much! The reason? Why, it's to help the farmer.

These proposals are bad enough
in themselves but the real danger lies in the extremes to which unsound movements are carried unless a halt is called. "If it doesn't work in one industry let's try it in some other field," seems to be the attitude of proponents of such measures. I know a chap who sells shellac. Why not a proposal to mix shellac with hair tonic?

Legislation designed to help one group at the expense of others, not only is fundamentally unsound, but eventually proves decidedly harmful to the group it is intended to benefit.

REALLY AN OBLIGATION

When the farmer can produce at a profit, and every citizen, who wants to work, can make a living at a gainful occupation, then we will enjoy a condition that is fundamentally sound and prosperity that is lasting.

Sooner or later the ingenuity of
man, NOT IN PUBLIC OFFICE, will have to construct such an economic structure. The obvious-ness of this fact should stir to action every thinking man in our country who has been blessed with the quality of leadership.

FLAGPOLE SITTING

The city of Buffalo adopted an ordinance putting a stop to injurious contests, such as dance marathons, flagpole sitting,
etc. This ordinance should be adopted by other cities, but its scope extended to include the public exhibitions in which the injurious endurance is borne by the citizenry and not by the performers. For instance: fence sitting contests by candidates for public office, cross-country marathons for the rural vote, and the politicians' relay—

running up the taxes and running down the jobs.

HAZARDOUS OCCUPATIONS

A recent survey made by leading life insurance companies, showed the greatest number of accidental industrial fatalities occurred last year, not in the so-called hazardous occupations, but on farms by careless use of agricultural machinery.
Ellsworth Gale, Director of the Red Cross Products of Johnson and Johnson, claims: "Every year at his spring activity, the sale of such first aid equipment as cotton, gauze,
"20 and drybak adhesive tape in rural communities mounts rapidly.
Most of the accidents are caused by carelessness with working tools rather than familiarity with tractors and other farm machinery."

The very familiarity with machinery breeds contempt of its dangers and results in accidents.

INTERNATIONAL GRAND JURY.

An International Grand Jury, composed of cross sections of the citizenry of every civilized nation to act between the World Court and offending nations has been proposed by Lloyd N. Scott, well-known
New York attorney. The substance of his proposal follows: "As the Grand Jury is the only remaining point of contact between the average citizen and his government and its officials, so an International Grand Jury, made up of average citizens of the world, offers the only direct and practicable means of contact between the World Court and the citizenry of the various nations."

UNFAIR COMPETITION

At least 225 items of trade are suffering from government competition. The government uses the citizens' money to establish ruinous competition against him.

No particular Administration is responsible for this unfavorable condition. It is a bureaucratic form of government which has grown at an alarming rate in recent years.

LEST WE FORGET

Government should remain an instrument of man and not a master over him. As Daniel Webster so aptly put it: "A day—an hour—
of virtuous liberty is worth a whole eternity of bondage."

INTERESTING DAYS

July 12 is Orangemen's Day in Ireland. Dr. Burnet, chaplain to William of Orange, formulated the aims of the Orangemen, and association of Protestants who upheld the Protestant succession to the British throne, in 1688, and the Protestant religion in church and state as laid down in the Bill of Rights that year.

Judge Orion Metcalf Barber of the U. S. Court of Customs Appeals was born July 13, 1857, at Jamaica, Vt. He gave 44 years to public service in various offices for the state and nation.

Paul Kruger, leader of the Boers in the South African War, died July 14, 1911.

The English poet Winthrop Mackworth Praed died in London July 15, 1875. Austin Dobson spoke of him as "supreme" as a writer of "society verse," because of his sparkling wit, clearness, and finished style.

The American poet and critical writer Sarah Margaret Fuller, who became Marchioness Ossoli, was lost at sea off Fire Island, N. Y., July 16, 1850, with her husband and child. (Some authorities say May, not July.)

Charles VII was crowned at Rheims, as result of the victories of Joan of Arc, on July 17, 1429.

Arthur Penrhyn Stanley, Dean of Westminster Cathedral, died in London July 18, 1881.

REVIEWER'S CHOICE

My special treat for the column readers this week is two new recipes from the popular radio book reviewer, Mr. Joseph Henry Jackson, in charge of the literary section of the San Francisco Chronicle, and his wife. First I will give you his method of making breakfast chocolate in a new and wholly delightful manner, then Mrs. Jackson's rule for a toasted breakfast cake.

BREAKFAST CHOCOLATE

Mr. Jackson says: "I mix a pinch of salt with 3 tablespoons of granulated sugar (more if desired) and 4 tablespoons unsweetened powdered chocolate. Then I add 1-4 to 12 cup of water, and heat it over a burner turned low till the mixture is melted smooth. At this point I add a few drops of vanilla; you'll learn how much you like after a few trials. Then add 3 1-2 cups of rich milk and heat it until it is ready to boil, but NOT boiling.

"Now your chocolate is ready, but for two things: One is that it ought not to be drunk until it has stood for 12 hours in a stone jug. Don't use a metal one; it seems to flavor the chocolate. Any ordinary china pitcher will do. Like oatmeal, chocolate ought to be made for breakfast the night before. Then next morning, heat it to the boiling point again, add half a teaspoon of cinnamon to the cup, beat it thoroughly with an eggbeater—and there you are!"

TOASTED BREAKFAST CAKE

Mrs. Jackson's cake rule requires 2 eggs, beaten until thick; add 1 cup granulated sugar and 1 teaspoon vanilla. Mix and sift 1 cup pastry flour with 1 teaspoon baking powder and 1-4 teaspoon salt. Add to first mixture and beat well. Then add 1-2 cup hot milk and 1 tablespoon shortening melted. Bake in a square, shallow pan in a moderate oven. Cover with the following mixture: Melt 3 tablespoons butter, add 5 tablespoons brown sugar and 2 tablespoons cream, stir in 1-2 cup shredded coconut and spread over top of cake after it is baked, then brown it quickly under the broiler till coconut is lightly browned.

ICED COFFEE DELUXE

Over the radio I caught this delicious recipe for making iced coffee for a hot day: Make 2 cups fresh coffee. To 1 cup granulated sugar add 2 teaspoons maple flavoring, pour the coffee scalding hot over the sugar. Add 1 cup cream, cool, put crushed ice in your glasses and pour in the coffee, top with whipped cream, and a dusting of cinnamon.

POP-OVERS

Little Sister's pop-overs were simple and quick to make, and very delicious. Stir together quickly but well, 1 cup each milk and flour and 1 egg, and a little salt, and bake in very hot muffin irons.

CREAM PIE

Aunt Nellie's cream pie was another simple recipe. Cream together 1-2 cup sugar and 1 tablespoon butter, add 2 beaten eggs, 1 tablespoon flour, 1 cup milk, and bake in an under crust, with nutmeg grated on top.

SAUCE FOR FISH

From Heidelberg, Germany, Miss Sarah Gay of the University of Wisconsin staff brought this recipe for sauce for fresh caught fish: 1 teacup milk, same of water, heated together. Wet 1 tablespoon flour with cold water and stir into hot liquid. Add 2 eggs, salt, pepper, a little celery, a dash of vinegar, and 3 tablespoons butter.

PEAR PRESERVES

Mrs. B. W. Baker of Raleigh, N. Car., makes good preserves thus: Peel the pears and cut fine like chips. When there are enough to make 8 lbs. add an equal weight of sugar, 1-2 lb. candied ginger cut fine, and boil together slowly 1 1-2 hours. Then add 4 lemons chopped fine and cooked in enough water to make them soft. Cook all together another 1-2 hour and can.

NORTHFIELD IN NEW ENCYCLOPEDIA

The new 1934 edition of the National Encyclopedia which is on file at the Herald office for use of its readers has the following to say about Northfield.

"NORTHFIELD: a town of Northfield, Massachusetts, in Franklin County, situated about 40 miles northeast of Springfield on the Connecticut River. The Boston and Maine and Central Vermont railroads afford transportation. Northfield is a popular summer resort located in a rich agricultural region chiefly producing hay, potatoes and tobacco. Northfield Seminary for girls is located here and the Mount Hermon School for boys is situated nearby. Pop. 1920, 1775, 1880, 1888."

If you should happen to take your wrist watch for a swim sometime do this as soon as possible. Open the case exposing the works and give it a good bath of oil. Then take it to a jeweler at once. It will need cleaning but the oil bath will save you money on parts.

It's not easy to play a good game of anything or visit serenely and peacefully when you're conscious of the clock. When you're worrying about that dinner you must prepare for your family.

To women who want more time for themselves, electric cookery is an admirable
solution to the problem.

For instance, take this appetizing "one-dish" dinner, printed at the right: Before going out, it is only necessary to place the food in the oven, set the time and temperature controls—then thoughts of dinner are over until it is time to take the complete dinner, cooked completely, from the oven.

Try this dish, cooked this easy way!

Of course, if you are not an electric range owner, then you will find it to your advantage to get in touch with your local electric range dealer today, if you want to get the utmost from these beautiful summer days.

Lake Pleasant

The dance at the Temple Saturday evening was the best attended of the season and the music was excellent. The Ambassadors, presented by Clem Schuler, an orchestra of seven pieces, furnished the music and it was generally conceded that it was the best music that the Lake has had for two seasons.
The services Sunday afternoon
drew large audiences with Rev.
Albert P. Blinn speaking in the afternoon upon the subject Medi-umship found in the Bible, and Mrs. Adele C. Williams of Boston followed the address with psychic messages and she also held a message service in the evening. Next Sunday afternoon Mrs. Josephine
M. Simon will follow Mr. Blinn's address with psychic messages and will officiate at the evening message service.

The vocal trio by Mrs. Rose E.
Manchester, Mrs. Josephine Benton and Mrs. Lillian J. Blinn was thoroughly enjoyed and Mrs. Manchester's solos were sung in splendid voice. The regular camp meeting will open Sunday July 29th
with Harold Alderson of England

as speaker and psychic for the day.

The Lake Pleasant Inn is open for the season with Mrs. Helen R.
Turney in general supervision and Miss Amy Neas in active charge.
With the hotel, the Temple tea
room and Roby's all open and enjoying good patronage and almost every cottage on the grounds occupied, the camp meeting next month bids fair to be a success in every way. The leading representatives of the spiritualist cult will occupy the platform of the Temple
during the five Sundays and imtervening week days.

Mr. Burton A. Gaskill of Montague street has nearly completed his new two stall garage which takes the place of the one destroyed by fire last winter.

Mrs. Lottie Nelson has made extensive improvements in the cottage recently purchased from the Stiles' estate including a bath room, with modern fixtures and new foundations.

The first thing the Sheriff does when he takes over a business is to advertise it and some businesses
get their first advertising that way.
There is a moral here somewhere.

Cuna and Noodle Casserole

SEVES EIGHT

1 package egg noodles (about 5 ounces.)
3 tablespoons butter.
3 tablespoons flour
2 cups milk.
3 tablespoons chopped pimiento.
1 tablespoon finely minced onion.
1 small can tuna fish (1 cupful or 7 ounces.)
2 teaspoons lemon juice.
Salt and paprika to taste.
1/2 cup finely chopped chives.

Cook the noodles tender in salted boiling water. Drain, rinse in cold water, and drain again. Make a cream sauce of the butter, flour and milk. Add the pimiento and onion.
Drain the oil from the tuna, place in a bowl, add the lemon juice, and salt to taste. Add the noodles, and cream sauce, and season with salt and paprika. Pour into a baking dish and sprinkle with the chives. Bake at 375°

DO COME!

"Come Friday, and stay over—
it's been so long since we've seen you—we'll play as much golf as you like—Tom told me to ask you particularly for next week—
good! then we'll look for you."

MANY telephone invitations like the one above, some of them delivered on the spur of the moment, are preludes to delightful week-ends. Guests and parties enliven a summer, and a personally-issued invitation to out-of-town friends is an added inducement.
Moreover, an invitation by telephone lets plans be made and discussed in advance, and often simplifies preparations in many ways.

A New Pest

Another pest to bother the farmer and gardener is reported in our nearby areas. This time it is the Gypsy Moth. The following article is taken from the Athol Transcript and shows how close to home the moths really are.

THE GYPSY MOTH

The unusually heavy defoliation of roadside and forest trees by the gypsy moth is at present attracting attention in Athol and neighboring towns. In many instances large patches of woodland are browned through the complete loss of leaves at a distance presenting the appearance of a burn.

The defoliation is caused by caterpillars feeding on the leaves from the time the eggs hatch in May until the caterpillars have reached full size in early July. At this stage it is sometimes confused with the apple tree tent caterpillar and the forest tent caterpillar, both of which are common in this locality this year. The gypsy moth caterpillar may be distinguished by five pairs of blue dots on the segments nearest the head, followed by six pairs of red dots, and by prominent tufts of hairs along either side of the body. The full grown caterpillar is about two inches long.

After feeding is completed the caterpillar enters a dormant (pupal) stage lasting from one to two weeks, following which it emerges as an adult moth. The female gypsy moth is flightless, and, remaining near the spot where she emerged from the pupa, she mates, lays her eggs, and then dies. The female is about one and one-half inches long, with wings folded, and the wings are white with dark, wavy markings. The male moth is smaller, dark brown in color, and a strong flier. During the month of July the females deposit eggs in clusters of four hundred or more and cover them with buff-colored hair. Usually, the eggs do not hatch until the following spring, and it is during the egg stage that the creeping of the clusters has been carried out by the local moth wardens. In the case of severe outbreaks this method of funds are available, is supplemented control is inadequate, and, where by the use of poison sprays applied to the foliage soon after the caterpillars start feeding. At the present time feeding is about completed, and the insect is entering the pupal stage. Although the gypsy moth was accidentally introduced into this country some sixty years ago, and has done great damage in the eastern part of the State, this is the first time it has reached alarming proportions in this locality.

YOUR CHILD AND THE SCHOOL

By Dr. ALLEN G. IRELAND
Director, Physical and Health Education
New Jersey State Department of Public Instruction

Caring for the Teeth

An unclean mouth takes the edge off one's appetite. Sore gums and painful teeth naturally curb a desire to eat and encourage bolting.

Observations seem to indicate that we overlook these facts too frequently when dealing with children. A look into a child's mouth would be revealing to many parents.

Proper care of the teeth is a two-fold matter. Teeth ought to be examined regularly by a dentist and his instructions followed. He will tell you that food is the important factor in preventing tooth decay.

The chief foods for teeth are the so-called "protective foods"—milk, fruits and vegetables. Do not deprive a child of any of these if you wish him to have sound, even teeth.

A child should also be taught to care for his own teeth. Brushing the teeth and gums is an important habit, though we do not any longer believe that cleanliness alone will prevent tooth decay. Nevertheless it is as important as washing the face or hands and every child should learn it early in life.

Dental caries, or decay of the teeth, has been called the most prevalent disease in America. It is estimated that 90 to 95 per cent of all children have it. Parents, by proper care, can prevent much of it.

Summer vacation time approaches. Dr. Ireland will discuss its special problems next week.

YOUR CHILD AND THE SCHOOL

By Dr. ALLEN G. IRELAND
Director, Physical and Health Education
New Jersey State Department of Public Instruction

Summer Vacation

Summer means vacation from school, but not a vacation from parental vigilance. When one type of strain ceases, another begins. Worry over school marks ends, but outdoor activity may suddenly become too strenuous, especially in hot weather.

Frequent rest periods are essential for the young child. Indeed, rest during the day may counteract the restlessness of hot nights.

Bathing takes on new importance. The daily bath is not only health insurance, but a very definite aid to comfort. Sunbathing is no longer a fad. But insist that the first tan be acquired gradually. Severe sunburn can be serious, and long periods of exposure may lead to sunstroke.

Talk quietly to the child about these dangers with a view to winning his cooperation. Insistence and punishment often lead to rebellion. Remember that the food requirements are not changed. Instead, if there is increased activity, larger amounts may be needed. Give the child all you can of the new green vegetables; keep up the full supply of milk; and don't forget the fruits. Though you may lose your appetite in hot weather, the child is usually active. He needs his regular balanced diet.

Dr. Ireland will tell how to choose suitable summer camps next week.

The millions of visitors who saw the 1933 Century of Progress Exposition at Chicago and who return to see the 1934 Fair will find radical differences in coloring and lighting effects. New buildings, new color and lighting schemes and many new exhibits will make practically a new Fair. The above picture shows a bit of the color and lighting effects along the basin leading to the Planetarium where myriad colored lights playing downward into the clear waters of the basin and on to the brilliantly colored pattern over which the waters flow create a veritable fairyland effect.

On The Ridge

Mrs. L. Featherstone of Jackson Heights, N. Y., returns to her home on Saturday after two weeks with Mrs. Edna Jenkins at High View.

Word has come from California that Mr. Vincent Barnes, formerly of Northfield and now of Newman where his father is pastor of a Presbyterian Church, has entered San Jose College where he will study Bacteriology and Chemistry, beginning with the summer term. His friends here wish him every success. His sister Lucille is a Sophomore in the same school.

Locals

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Danforth and sons Everett and Norman with Mrs. Miles Morgan visited the Navy Yard on last Monday. They were shown over the Tennessee. Norman Danforth has joined his ship the Concord at Newport News Va., and has sailed for the West Coast with the fleet.

Miss Harriet Hastings of Orange Mass. has been the guest of Mrs. C. H. Webster.

Miss Marion Webster is studying piano this summer with Mr. Bruce Simonds of New Haven. Mr. Simonds is teaching during July at the Surette Music School at Concord, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Johnson and son of Wentworth Hall, Brooklyn is visiting their mother, Mrs. Jennie Johnson and sister Ruth on the Ridge.

Mrs. Charles C. Stearns who has been ill for the past week is reported better.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Peltier are now in their new home at Greenfield. They were recently surprised by a party of sixteen with a tin shower. Mrs. Peltier was the former Elizabeth Auclair of Northfield.

Mrs. L. Lorimer Drury with her daughters Mrs. George P. Robb of Rye, N. Y., and Miss Katherine Drury of Ross, California are at the L. L. Norton residence on Highland Ave.

MAGAZINES WANTED

Virginia Fresh Air Camp would gladly welcome old magazines for their reading room. They may be taken to the camp or left at Green Pastures. Or phone Northfield 120 and they will be called for.

SURPRISE PARTY

About 40 former associates in the Postal Service paid a surprise visit to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Slate at their new home Thursday night. The crowd marching to Bill Shattuck's Drum were prepared to give the unsuspecting couple an old-fashioned House Warming. On behalf of the assemblage W. A. Wright Senior Postal employee in Northfield and now retired presented the Slates with a pair of Reclining Beach Chairs. Mr. and Mrs. Slate responded graciously and welcomed the guests to their new home where a merry evening was enjoyed. All wished Mr. and Mrs. Slate many happy years in their new home.

METEORS BY MILLIONS!

Francis S. Dane, Jr. of Lexington, Mass., with one of our dog teams at Pressure Camp.

LITTLE AMERICA, ANTARCTICA, June 28 (via Mackay Radio).—I have just come down from the astronomical tower after observing my trillionth meteor. May be it was my squillionth! Anyhow, it is pitch dark and I'm cold and tired, but I must get this story off to you on time.

I am now a regular member of what we call the "Meteor Party," helping Dr. Thomas C. Poulter, of Mt. Pleasant, Ia., chief of our scientific group and second in command here while Admiral Byrd is off in his big 123 miles away; James M. Stierrett, of Beaver Falls, Pa.; Ralph W. Smith, aviator, of Fredricktown, O.; and Earle B. Perkins, of New Brunswick, N. J. Every night now for several weeks we have sat in the observation tower, about which I told you in a previous story, observing an area about 18 miles in diameter and to an atmospheric depth of about 100 miles. In Dr. Moulton's book, "An Introduction to Astronomy," which I am studying, he calculates that, if we were humanly possible, we could observe at any given time from ten to twenty million meteors daily. In other words, that number of meteors are in motion and headed toward the earth every day within the canopy of atmosphere with which the world is surrounded. Luckily only comparatively tiny pieces of a few of them ever reach the earth, being burned by the friction caused by their rush through our atmosphere. Twenty million full-sized meteors hitting the earth all at once! Well, we shouldn't last long!

Dr. Poulter's calculations, however, differ from those of Dr. Moulton. Dr. Poulter says there are, at least thirty million meteors flying around in space every day and that in the meteor showers of June 6 and 7 we were seeing about three times that number. And we believe him! This is a careful calculation based on a two months' observation by five observers. In all probability this is due to the great depth of the atmospheric canopy in these latitudes, also to the complete freedom from dust, smoke and vapor down here at the bottom of the world. These observations will be continued until the winter night ends in August and we should have some very interesting new data and theories which should be of great value to all astronomers.

Work of this kind makes the winter night in Little America very interesting and it has certainly given me a chance to acquire some real knowledge available to only a few people in the world. Wonder what I'll be able to do with this knowledge later on! From ovals to seals to astronomy. From aviation to ship navigation to contract bridge. Such is life around the South Pole! And Geel How I'd like a hot bath, with real soap and big rough clean towels! Incidentally, we heard perfectly the round-by-round description of the Baer-Carnegie fight. Some battle!

Schools and colleges are closing up where you are but $99 entire classes have enrolled in our club. If you're interested in what we're doing, off at the lower end of the world, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me at our American headquarters and a blue membership card and big working map of all Antarctica will be sent you, all without cost or obligation. Simply address Arthur Abbe, Jr., president, Little America Aviation and Exploration Club, Hotel Lexington, 48th Street and Lexington Avenue, New York, N. Y.

Flower Lovers Open New War On Pests That Ruin A Garden

FLOWER lovers, and especially those who enjoy rose growing, will soon begin the annual war against plant diseases and destructive insects which destroy bushes and blooms during the late spring and summer months. Brown canker, mildew, black spot and leaf-eating insects will soon make their appearance in gardens which have not received the attention necessary to prevent these evils.

Exhaustive studies on the control of plant diseases and destructive pests by the Department of Plant Pathology of the Ohio State Experiment Station and industrial chemists have resulted in the perfection of a chemical dust made of manganese arsenate and other materials, which is at once a fungicide and an insecticide.

Tests show that this dust is highly efficient in the control of major rose diseases and also most leaf-eating insects as well as red spider.

The same chemical dust is said to be effective in the control of various diseases and insects which attack asters, hollyhocks, carnations and snapdragons.

SKIING, BOOKS, RADIO AND DOGS!

Moving our radio equipment across the ice to Little America. Fourth from left is Charles V. J. Murphy, our radio and news writer.

LITTLE AMERICA, ANTARCTICA, now in the evenings. We have several hundred books with us. Most of the men prefer romantic fiction, detective stories and autobiographies. Three times a week we have moving picture shows with sound. We had 133 dogs. Now we have 123. Another batch of puppies arrived a couple of days ago. Only four times a few weeks ago we found seven canine newcomers in Dogtown and they are now lively little balls of fur, fat and mischief, always getting under foot in the dark tunnels.

My muscles are aching and so is every joint in my body. Reason? Skiing! It is pronounced "sneezing." Some of the weather lately has allowed us to go out skiing near the houses after our day's work is over, for much needed exercise and practice. I'm not so hot as a skier. Last night I went with a big crowd of them and today most of us can hardly sit down to eat because we sat down so frequently and so violently on the hard snow last night. In the party were Francis Dane, of Lexington, Mass.; Edward L. Moody, of Tamworth, N. H.; and Richard S. Russell, of Boston, who, being dog drivers, are pretty good on skis; Harold Juna, of Dartmouth, Conn.; Stuart D. Palmer, of Dartmouth, N. H.; Carl Peterson, of Merrick, Long Island, N. Y.; and Quinn A. Blackburn, of Seattle, Wash., who are in my class and are eating off shelves today, and Finn Honne, of Pittsburgh; and Albert M. Killisen, of Tromsø, Norway. These last two are experts and some of the things they can do on skis are wonderful. We're all got to become proficient by October, under the instruction of Ronne and Killisen, in order to take to the trails of the seal of my breeches holds out.

We are doing a lot of reading. By the way, did you hear my radio talk Wednesday night of last week? I tried to make it of interest to every member of our club throughout the United States and was delighted with this opportunity to speak to them. The club is still growing and the membership is still open to all people interested in aviation and adventure, ours in particular, entirely without charge or obligation. To join and get a big map of the South Polar region simply send a self-addressed stamped envelope to Arthur Abbe, Jr., President, Little America Aviation and Exploration Club, Hotel Lexington, 48th Street and Lexington Avenue, New York. Be sure and write your name and complete address plainly because we have received a number of the club membership cards and maps back due to insufficient address. If you haven't received yours yet this may be the reason so write us again.
